

PART ONE: Complete the rectangles and circles with appropriate words to express WHEN the events could happen.

PART TWO: Complete the following sentences with an appropriate word or expression for time. Try to use different words than those in part one.

1. I work _____. vs I am working _____.

2. He _____ drinks coffee in the morning. vs He is drinking coffee _____.

3. They travel to Spain _____. vs They are travelling around Spain _____.

CM2: How do I express present events in the affirmative in English?

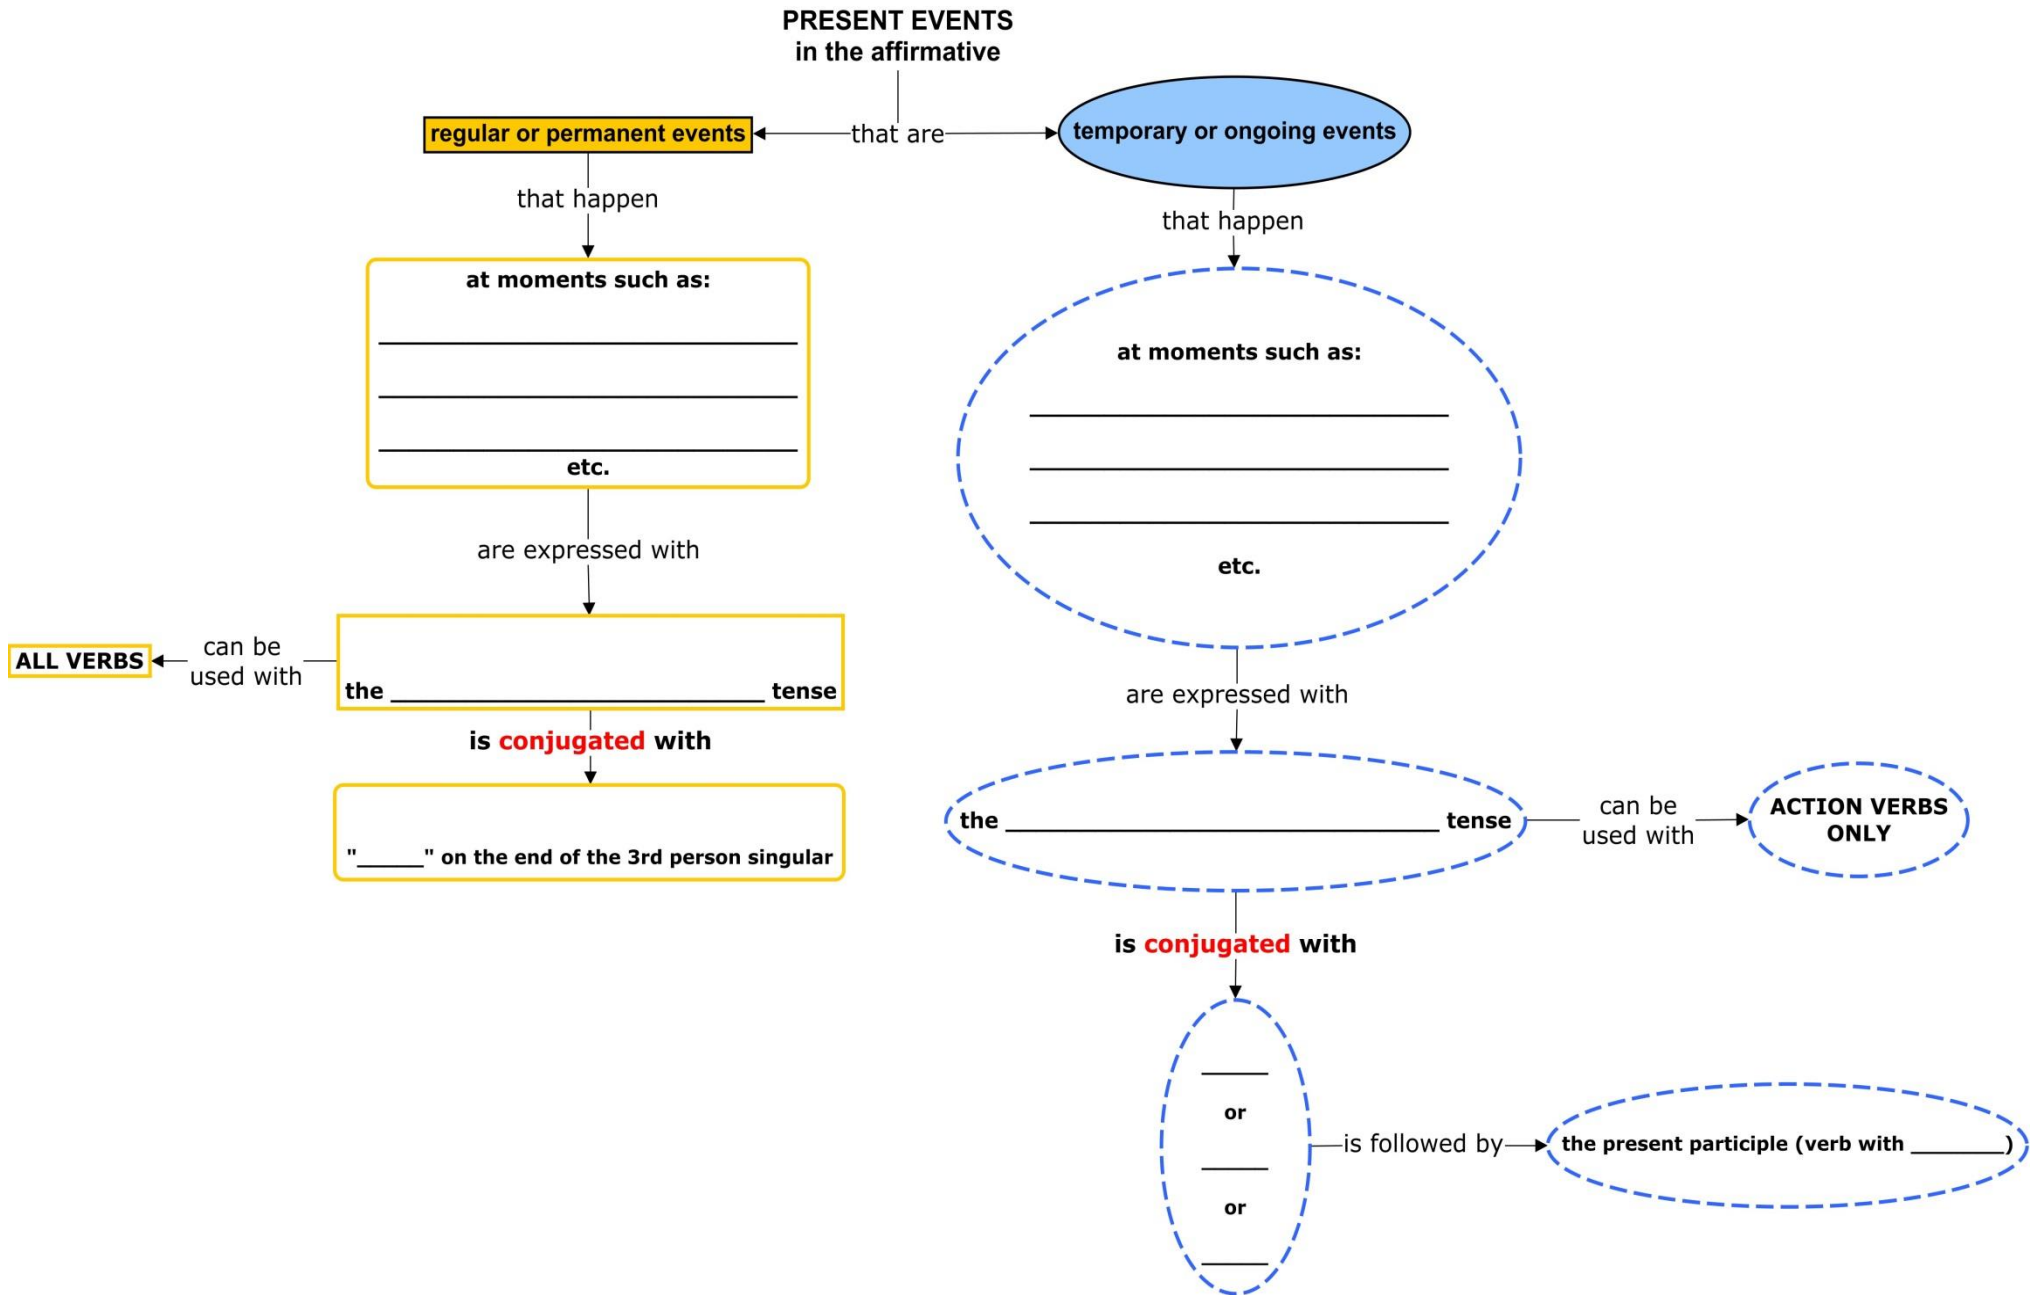

PART ONE: Complete the following concept map by choosing from the red words below:

every day / present progressive / now / usually / simple present / this week / once a month / today

PART TWO: Complete the following concept map by choosing from the red words below:

every day / are / present progressive / now / usually / s / simple present / am / this week / once a month / ing / today / is PART THREE: Complete the sentences by conjugating the verb in parentheses in the affirmative. Use the simple present or the present progressive according to the context.

I _____ every Monday. (work) I _____ this week.

He always _____ coffee. (drink) He _____ a cup of coffee at the moment in the morning

The baby usually _____ in (sleep) Shhh! The baby _____ now.
the afternoon.

Cows _____ grass. (eat) Look! The cows _____ grass.

I _____ Chinese. (understand/say) I _____ what you _____.

CM3: How do I express present events in the negative in English?

PART ONE: Complete the following concept map by choosing from the red words below:

am not / twice a day / aren't / present progressive / at the moment / be / sometimes / doesn't / simple present / this morning / don't / in the morning / present participle / tonight / isn't / base form / not PART TWO: Complete the sentences by conjugating the verb in parentheses in the negative, except for 3 verbs, which should be affirmative for the sentences to be logical. Use the simple present or the present progressive according to the context.

I _____ on Mondays. (work) I _____ this week.

He _____ coffee in the morning. (drink) He _____ a cup of coffee because he's busy.

The baby _____ in the afternoon. (sleep/play) The baby _____ right now. He _____ with a ball.

Cows _____ trees. (eat) Look! The cows _____ trees, they _____ grass.

I _____ Chinese. (understand/say) I _____ what you _____.

CM4: How do I ask questions about present events in English?

PART ONE: Complete the following concept map by choosing from the red words below:

base form / on a regular basis / tomorrow / be / do / rarely / placed in front of / is / present progressive / in a few minutes am / subject (3x) / sometimes / present participle / this month / are / does / simple present / auxiliary (2x)

PART TWO: Complete the questions by conjugating the verb in parentheses. Use the simple present or the present progressive according to the context.

_____ you _____ on Mondays? (work) _____ you _____ this week?

_____ he _____ coffee in the morning? (drink) _____ he _____ a cup of coffee at the moment?

_____ the baby _____ in the afternoon? (sleep) _____ the baby _____ right now?

_____ cows usually _____ grass? (eat) _____ the cows _____ grass now?

_____ you _____ Chinese? (understand/say) _____ you _____ what I

_____?